TwelveStone Health Partners names new executives

MURFREESBORO —TwelveStone Health Partners, a post-acute care pharmacy and medical supply company, has named three employees to director level positions: Scott Brown – purchasing and inventory control; Elizabeth Dean – finance; and Angela Farmer – human resources.

“These are three very hard working and dedicated members of the TwelveStone team,” said Shane Reeves, president and CEO of TwelveStone. “We’re proud of our ability to attract and nurture talents like Scott, Elizabeth and Angela and I know they’ll be valuable assets as spearhead our expansion efforts into all 95 Tennessee counties.”

Brown is responsible for managing inventory costs and improving workflow efficiencies. He joined TwelveStone in 2015 from Franklin-based Network HealthCare, where he was a technician supervisor.

Dean brings 21 years of experience in accounting and finance to her current role, where she is responsible for effectively managing all financial tasks of the organization. She joined TwelveStone in 2012 from Dempsey Vantrease and Follis, a Murfreesboro-based accounting firm.

Farmer joined TwelveStone in 2015 and has more than 20 years of experience in human resources management.

All three employees will work directly with TwelveStone’s Chief Financial Officer, Chad Boyd.
